

United in their love for one another
Celebrating this love today
We're witnessing a dedication
Of two hearts, two lives, one home

*Lord let your spirit guide
In times of trouble, times of joy
Always near, the constant friend
You're all they need
You will be there throughout the years*

O Lord will you surround them with your blessing
Let them stand firm in your love
Be sure of your promised protection
And trust in your faithfulness

In times of laughter, times of tears
Let them walk as one Trusting in your perfect will Lord bless these lives
