

Feel the sunshine
And I know that you are here
See the blue sky
Such a perfect atmosphere
All around me
Everything just seems to be as it should be

When the clouds come
And then things are not so clear
Stormy weather
I no longer feel you near
As the light fades
It is hard to even know if you are there

*High above the clouds you always shine on me
Even though at times I cannot see
I know you are always shining over me
Every moment I can know that you are here*

Feel the rain fall
And I feel unsure again
As the wind blows
All my hope begins to fade
In the shadows
I'm uncertain of the truth that I believe

Then the clouds part
And the light comes shining through
Every suns ray
Is reminding me of you
Faith is rising
And I know you love is with me all the time
