

With every breath, with every heartbeat
I will give you praise
Through every day, each waking moment
I will walk your ways
For I was lost, You rescued me
And made my life complete
So now and always
I am yours, Lord

*I live to worship you
I live to praise your name
Honour and glorify
All of my days*

In times of joy, In times of sorrow
I will give you praise
When you seem close, When you feel distant
I will seek your face
For I was lost, You rescued me
And made my life complete
So now and always
I am yours, Lord
