

Darkness falls
And hope seems lost for all
The cross is lifted high
The end has come
Jesus Christ
The king laid down his life
Through God's redemption plan
Our chains are gone!

Love has changed the course of history
Love has torn the veil and set us free
Love has won the greatest victory
Oh the mystery of this sacrifice of love

Light has dawned
Upon this glorious morn
The tomb is empty now
The body gone
Jesus Christ
The king is raised to life
Death has no hold on us
He's overcome!
