

I want to be holy and live my life for you
In all that I say and all that I do
Lord make me holy
I want to be holy, but things get in the way
The cry of my heart is “set me apart”
Lord make me holy

*So send the fire
Come and burn up all my sin
Breathe through me now
And stir the passion deep within
The world's richest treasures
Are the voices that call
Their beauty and pleasures
I'll give them all, I'll give them all
To be holy*

I want to be holy and live what I believe
The things that I do be only for You
Lord make me holy
I want to be holy your touch upon my life
I'm down on my knees and asking You please
Lord make me holy
