

Lord, you are my all, You are my everything
And I'll forever praise you
Lord, you are my joy, The reason that I sing
And I'll forever praise your name

When times are good, When times are bad
My times are in your hands
And I know that If I can praise, despite my place
Your love will lift me through
Will lift me through

When friends are here, When friends are gone
When friends keep moving on
I know if I can trust when things get rough
Your love will lift me through
Will lift me through

When faith is high, When faith is low
When faith is all I know
I found if I can sing in spite of everything
Your love will lift me through,
Will lift me through

I'll forever praise you, I'll forever praise your name,
Forever I'll praise you forever,
I'll will praise you, praise you
